

Allied Membership

allows corporations and individuals not otherwise eligible for AIA New York State membership to participate in some of the services which we provide. Joining AIA New York State as an Allied Member in our “Membership Connection Program” has its benefits... It will provide you access to more than 6,600 architects and enhance your overall visibility and reinforce your affiliation with our organization, as well as with other design related professionals throughout New York State.

...architects specify more than 70 percent of the building related products used in construction today.

Recent studies indicate that architects specify more than 70 percent of the building related products used in construction today. Being part of AIANYS extended family may well be the most cost effective opportunity to increase your business. Not only will you gain valuable networking opportunities, but you will also be informed of issues and trends on the forefront for the architects as they plan for today, tomorrow and the future.

AIA New York State, Inc.

An Organization of The American Institute of Architects

What is AIA New York State?

AIA New York State, Inc. (AIANYS) is the third largest state component of The American Institute of Architects representing more than 6,600 architects on issues of statewide importance to the public and profession.

With headquarters located in Albany, AIANYS provides easy and convenient representation of architects' interests and issues before New York's Legislature and regulatory agencies. AIANYS publishes a bi-monthly Newsletter (distribution of 7,500) and an electronic newsletter “e-News” (distribution of 4,000). Additionally, there are thirteen local chapters within AIA New York State.

Allied Membership allows you to place your business name in front of those who specify your products – Our Members!!

Dedicated to advancing the quality of life through excellence in design of the built environment for our communities across the State.

Allied Membership Eligibility

Eligibility. Individuals who are not otherwise eligible for membership in AIANYS and who meet either of the following requirements listed below shall be eligible for Allied membership within AIANYS “Membership Connection Program”.

Corporate Allied Members. Those who are employed by firms in the construction industry engaged in research, design, development, testing, manufacture, distribution, or training for building and construction products or systems. Corporate membership allows three employees to attend events at the discounted rate. Annual Dues of $1,500.

Individual Allied Members. Those with established professional reputations who are registered to practice their professions where such requirements exist, or persons who are employed outside of architectural practice but are involved in positions allied to the field of architecture. Individual Allied members may include engineers, planners, landscape architects, sculptors, muralists, artists, and others in government, education, journalism, manufacturing, industry and/or other fields allied to architecture. Annual Dues of $250.

Requirements

Rights and Privileges of Allied Members. Corporations and individuals in good standing may use the phrase “Allied Organization of The American Institute of Architects.”

Use of Phrase. The phrase may be used on brochures, announcements, invitations, or signage for seminars, programs, meetings, and conventions; in corporate or association listings of professional affiliations including annual reports; and general corporate or association materials, as long as such use does not indicate endorsement, sponsorship, or approval of any construction material, product, or service.

Restriction on Use of Phrase. The phrase may not be printed on letterhead, business cards, advertisements, or product literature, or in any situation in which the use of the phrase may be construed as Institute endorsement, sponsorship, or approval.
