

Keeping Micro-Businesses and Solopreneurs Relevant and Resilient

Barbara A. Campagna, FAIA

Barbara is an architect, planner and historian – reinventing and restoring historic buildings. She is the recipient of the National AIA Young Architect of the Year Award 2002 and was elevated to Fellowship in 2009 as “the leading national architect and policymaker for the integration of preservation values into green building practices.” She received the AIA NYS Henry Hobson Richardson Award in 2020. As a solopreneur, her current firm, BAC/A+P has integrated her work as a private architect, non-profit administrator and government preservation officer for the past 14 years in a collaborative manner with other small business owners.
