

How To Expand Your Presence with Participation in the Community at Multiple Levels

Sandra McKee, FAIA

Sandra McKee FAIA is a graduate of the University of Waterloo. She is an adviser at the department of visual art at Fordham University, and a visiting critic at architectural and interior design schools including Columbia University, Pratt Institute, and City Tech. She is a registered architect in New York State and Nevada, and Chair of Manhattan Community Board 6.