

Sarah Drake, AIA

Founded in 2001, Sarah Gordon Drake Architect, LLC specializes in high-end residential alteration projects throughout the tri-state area. From her many years of experience, Sarah Drake, AIA is adept in working in a variety of styles. Her design projects include large and small alterations of single-family homes, brownstones, townhouses and apartments and new houses and additions.

Sarah has extensive experience navigating building restorations in landmark districts and also provides consulting services to other architects, engineers, contractors and building management teams. She is an active member of the architectural community, has served in several leadership roles of the Brooklyn chapter of American Institute of Architects, and is the Past-President of the chapter. She currently serves as Vice President, Professional Development on the AIA New York State Board of Directors.