

EDUCATION DESIGN SUMMIT

Diverse Leaders Driving Innovation in Education Spaces

An eight part online series exploring collaborative planning, design, and implementation of adaptable learning environments.

EPISODE 5:

From Groundbreaking to Grand Opening: Delivering Safe, Functional, and Inspiring K–12 Building Projects

Kirk Narburgh, FAIA, ASLA

Kirk brings thirty-nine years of professional experience to his position as CEO/Managing Partner at King + King Architects and is the partner-in-charge of education projects for both Higher Education and K-12 environments. He is an adjunct professor at Syracuse University's School of Architecture where he has been teaching Professional Practice and Digital Technology classes every semester for the past thirty-five years. He was the 2018 President of American Institute of Architects New York State, and served as the New York State Regional Representative to the AIA National Strategic Council from 2020-2022. He is involved with several National School Security Task Forces and Standards/Codes Committees as well as the NYSED Facilities Safe Schools Guidelines Working Group.

Kirk is an alumnus of Syracuse University where he earned a Master of Architecture ('90) and Cornell University where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Landscape Architecture ('87).