

EDUCATION DESIGN SUMMIT

Diverse Leaders Driving Innovation in Education Spaces

An eight part online series exploring collaborative planning, design, and implementation of adaptable learning environments.

EPISODE 5:

From Groundbreaking to Grand Opening: Delivering Safe, Functional, and Inspiring K–12 Building Projects

Matt Erwin

Matt brings over 35 years of experience in the building trades to his role as a K–12 Facilities Director, a position he's held for the past 11 years. At North Syracuse Central School District, he leads Facilities Management, Security, and Capital programs that support nearly 10,000 students and staff. His diverse career includes residential HVAC, commercial service management, executive leadership with a Fortune 500 energy company, and running his own successful contracting business. A past president and recognized Key Supporter of the NYS School Facilities Association (NYSSFA), Matt is also a member of A4LE and ISSA, and became an Accredited Learning Environment Planner (ALEP) earlier this year.
