

EDUCATION DESIGN SUMMIT

Diverse Leaders Driving Innovation in Education Spaces

An eight part online series exploring collaborative planning, design, and implementation of adaptable learning environments.

EPISODE 7:

Designing for Resilience and Renewal: Case Studies in Sustainable and Human-Centered School Design

Pamela Loeffelman, FAIA

Pam is a leader in our K-12 Education studio, elevating educational outcomes for school districts across the world. She was instrumental in winning the education facilities master plan for the U.S. Virgin Islands, an effort to rebuild and improve learning environments for the territory's 10,000 students. She believes that economic, social, and pedagogical trends can shape built environments to engage students, educators, and communities.
