

EDUCATION DESIGN SUMMIT

Diverse Leaders Driving Innovation in Education Spaces

An eight part online series exploring collaborative planning, design, and implementation of adaptable learning environments.

EPISODE 2:

Future-Ready Campuses and Learning Ecosystems for Wellbeing

Ron Bogle, Hon. AIA

As President and CEO of the American Architectural Foundation (2002–2017), Ron Bogle and his team partnered with more than 100 school districts nationwide to apply design as a strategy for educational improvement—an approach supported by major grants from the Gates Foundation. A former President of the Oklahoma City Public Schools Board of Education, he led a billion-dollar initiative that transformed the city’s learning environments. Bogle received the American Institute of Architects Honorary AIA Award in 2007 recognizing his national leadership in advancing school design. He is now President and Founder of the National Design Alliance/Reimagine America’s Schools, advancing equity-centered school and community design.
