EPISODE 3:

Innovative Learning Spaces: Designing Flexible and Sustainable Schools for 21st-Century Learners (School Design to Reimagine the Future of Learning)

Prakash Nair, AIA
Founding President & CEO
Education Design International

Prakash Nair is a futurist, a visionary architect, and the Founding President & CEO of Education Design International (EDI), a company with consultations in 59 countries on six continents. He is the recipient of many international awards, including the A4LE MacConnell Award, the highest honor worldwide for school design.

He has written extensively in leading international journals about school design. He is the author of five books, including the new landmark publication, Blueprint for Tomorrow: Redesigning Schools for Student-Centered Learning, published by the Harvard Education Press.

Prakash served as an instructor for HarvardX: Leaders of Learning about the shifting landscape of learning. Leaders of Learning has had over 400,000 registrants worldwide.

He is widely considered to be the world's leading architect of Innovative Schools. He lectures frequently at major universities and authors a blog on school design. He is a regular keynote speaker at international events and has delivered a TEDx talk. Prakash's signature talent lies in his ability to communicate his passion for a new approach to education across the globe.
